Bread.
The way it ought to be.

USDA Dietary Guidelines recommend eating at least three servings of whole grains a day to help control weight. Grains offer other health benefits, including a reduced risk of cancer, heart attacks and diabetes. Great Harvest has the freshest and most nutritious whole grains anywhere! Store bread is made from flour that is weeks or months old. Because of that, nutrients are lost; and unhealthy fats, oils, dough conditioners, and preservatives are added. But with our onsite milling and baking process, nutrients are naturally preserved. That's why it tastes so delicious.
